1. In accordance with the provisions set forth in reference (a) and (b), and based on a review of references (c) and (d), this letter announces the transfer of the residual information assurance (IA) risk, as documented in reference (c), to the Plan of Actions and Milestones (POA&M) within the Business Transformation Agency (BTA) Enterprise Mission Assurance Support Service (eMASS) instance for the JCCS program.
2. This accreditation merger action terminates the 3in1 interim accreditation letter reference (e) effective on the date of this memorandum and from this point forward places the IA risk for the 3in1 device and its interface with JCCS within the JCCS accreditation, reference (f).
3. The current accreditation of JCCS reference (f) remains in full effect and should be utilized as a replacement for the now terminated 3in1 interim accreditation letter reference (e).
6. Questions concerning this merger action, the JCCS accreditation or requests for any DIACAP information should be directed to my point of contact for the JCCS Mr. Andy Newman at 317-212-4519, (Office), (571) 216-2554 (Blackberry) or andy.newman@dfas.mil.
